RedZone program

The ultimate program for leadership teams

Overview:

Too busy for that quarterly review, teambuilding activity and leadership development? This program takes that off your plate and frees up your time to do the things that matter.

Welcome to the RedZone. This program will help your leadership team take their staff to the next level, focussing on performance and building leadership cohesion.

Aims:

- Leadership cohesion
- Better work-life management for your leaders
- Clear direction and focus
- Better staff engagement
- Increased productivity

Format:

Planning for Performance:

Strategic Planning day focussed on building leadership cohesion, common goals, focussed objectives and defining culture. Venue and catering included

Constant Improvement:

Three Half-Day Reviews – reviewing your plans and keeping on track, removing obstacles and keeping people engaged. Venue and catering included.

Team Cohesion and Reward:

Quarterly Team Building activities. Examples include: Story Bridge Adventure Climb, Paddle and Prawn kayak tours of the Brisbane River, Beer Appreciation Lunches. Let us take care of this for you.

Extras

Three half day workshops for your leadership team or staff, OR 20 performance coaching sessions designated as you see fit. Past clients have requested Performance, Engagement and Productivity workshops for staff, or Performance Coaching for leaders/staff.

Your Investment: $6 000 + GST per quarter

Covers all pre-work, planning, teambuilding, venues and catering for off-sites.

Tony Wilson has spent over a decade working with elite performers in business and in sport – some of whom have gone on to become the best in the world in their field. His ability to help athletes reach their potential and maintain motivation has been a large factor in their success, and many corporate leaders throughout Australia now also apply Tony's philosophies with outstanding results. Tony's practical background, coupled with an MBA, give him a unique perspective on personal performance.

“ Tony Wilson has acted as QIC GFI's team consultant for the past twelve months. Tony's coaching, focussing on effective communication, team goal-setting and strategies for achieving higher performance, has helped to lift the QIC Global Fixed Interest to new heights in terms of achieving excellence in a very challenging and competitive environment. ”
